

TAPSATIONS, FOTI, MEN'S CHORUS TO PERFORM DEC. 14 IN LEWES

THE TAPSATIONS! AND RICH FOTI will perform in combination with the Lewes Men's Chorus at the annual Holiday Show, "The Sounds of Christmas," at 7 p.m. Friday, Dec. 14, at the Bethel United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall, Fourth and Market streets, Lewes.

An evening of Holiday songs and dances will brighten the stage as the men's chorus, founded by Musical Director Bill Earl, brings this Christmas tradition to Lewes for the 24th year.

The concert will showcase the 22-member chorus under the direction of Ken Stevens and will feature festive tap dances, soloists, musicians and quartet arrangements of Holiday favorites. Tickets are $5 and are available at the door. Complimentary refreshments, including Christmas cookies, will be served after the show.

Local artist to display new works at Nassau vineyards Dec. 2

'Reimaginings of Sussex' to debut

Nassau Valley Vineyards will host an opening for local artist Pamela Bounds-Seemans from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 2. The show will run until the end of December.

Bounds-Seemans, born and raised in Milton, is known for her acrylic paintings surrounded by collage borders and hand-painted frames. Her latest series, Reimaginings of Sussex County, will feature paintings of Nassau Valley Vineyards, Sussex County rural scenes, the Overfalls Lightship, Punkin Chunkin, Return Day, other Delaware scenes, holiday themes, and fall and winter scenes.

"As someone from Sussex County, I find this place to be artistically inspiring," Bounds-Seemans said. "So, for this series, I painted what I know: the roads lined with cornfields that I used to drive down with my father, who worked on a farm; the Return Day ox roast and cows grazing in a field on Route 88. The joie de vivre of Nassau Valley Vineyards inspired me too, and I'm looking forward to showing
